If you're interested in becoming a Patient Care Technician, this training could be a good option.

1. Organization providing the training:

Baltimore City Community College (BCCC)

2. Physical location where training occurs:

BCCC-BIO PARK CAMPUS ENVIRONMENT
801 W. Baltimore Street, 2nd Floor
Baltimore, MD 21201

3. Description of the training offered:

Trainees have the opportunity to become a Patient Care Technician (PCT). This 9-week training program assists students in obtaining higher level skills needed to perform advanced nursing tasks. The training program focuses on advanced nursing skills including wound care, tracheotomy and ostomy care, catheterizations, Electrocardiography (EKG), and phlebotomy tasks. The training meets during the evenings twice per week for 4 hours (T, R 5-9:15pm).

4. Trainees have the opportunity to earn the following industry-recognized certifications:

Trainees have the opportunity to earn the following certifications:

- Mental Health First Aid
- Baltimore City Community College Certificate of Completion for Advanced Nursing Theory
- Advanced Nursing Clinical
- EKG Essentials
- Venipuncture Theory
- Venipuncture Clinical

5. Am I eligible?

To be eligible for this training program, applicants must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Be a Maryland resident
- Have a High School Diploma or GED®
- Have a sincere desire to work within the healthcare industry

- Be committed to completing all requirements of the program
- Be willing and able to obtain employment upon training completion
- Be a licensed Certified Nursing Assistant with one year of documented experience
- Submit proof of current Health Care Provider CPR certification
- Successfully pass both a federal and state background check
- Successfully complete a drug screening
- Provide results of a Tuberculosis skin test (PPD) or clear chest X-ray if PPD results were previously positive. PPD results must be no more than 12 months old when beginning clinical rotation
- Provide proof of measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) immunizations or positive titer
- Provide proof of completion of Hepatitis B vaccination series or sign a waiver releasing the College and clinical site of any legal or medical responsibilities resulting from exposure to the Hepatitis virus
- Provide proof of varicella immunization or positive titer
- Provide proof of influenza vaccination (seasonal)

6. What is the application process?

To apply for this training program, applicants should contact The Baltimore Alliance for Careers in Healthcare (BACH) directly at 410-931-3798 or at info@baltimorealliance.org

7. How much can I expect to earn if I complete this program and obtain employment as a Certified Patient Care Technician (PCT)?

Trainees who complete this program and obtain employment as a Patient Care Technician can expect to earn an average wage of $15.82 per hour.

8: How much do I have to pay for this program?

There is no cost to applicants.

9. Where can I find more information?

For more information, visit:

Main website: www.baltimorealliance.org
Facebook: @BACHORG