

FINANCIAL REGULATION CONSUMER COMPLAINT FORM

The Commissioner of Financial Regulation ("Commissioner") is responsible for supervising Maryland State-chartered banks, credit unions, and non-depository trust companies (collectively "Institutions") and for supervising entities providing the following financial services to Maryland consumers, including, consumer and installment lenders (including "payday" lenders), sales finance companies, mortgage brokers, lenders, servicers, and loan originators, check cashing services, money transmitters, debt management businesses, credit reporting agencies and credit services businesses (collectively "Licensees"). The State Collection Agency Licensing Board is responsible for supervising collection agencies ("Board Licensees").

Before you begin:

When contacting the entity, please make every effort to ensure that the person with whom you communicate is authorized to resolve your dispute.

If you are unable to resolve the complaint directly with the entity, the second step is to determine if the financial entity is supervised by the Commissioner (see our regulated financial service providers search page).

NOTE: If you believe that the party who is the subject of your complaint should be licensed by the Commissioner, and is not licensed, you should file a complaint.
